PROFESSIONAL PROFILE

Product Designer with experience in digital projects in consulting environments, at the intersection of UX/UI design, AI product strategy y creative technology. Currently at Accenture, I have contributed to designing digital banking experiences for BBVA in Italy and Germany, contributing to the definition of UX architectures, user flows and design systems within multidisciplinary teams including PMs, developers and business stakeholders. I am comfortable across all phases of the design process — from research to handoff — and I am particularly keen to keep growing through projects with real impact for users. Passionate about human-centered design and by exploring how AI can enrich creative processes. Proven track record in integrating Generative AI, prompt design, automation and supporting creative teams through AI adoption.
